DEDICATION

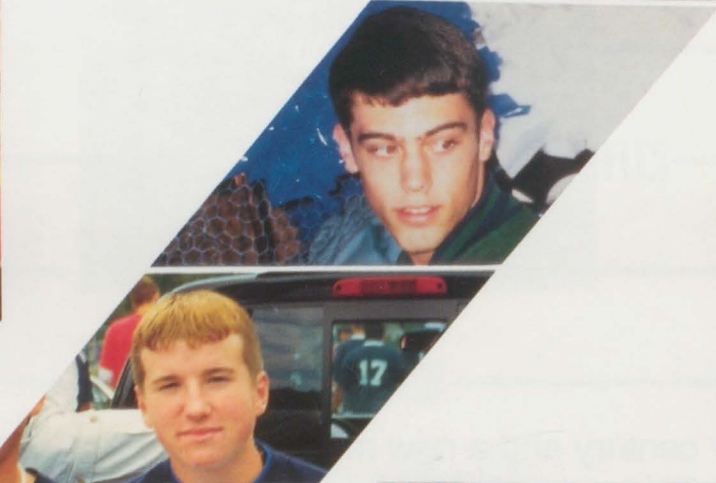

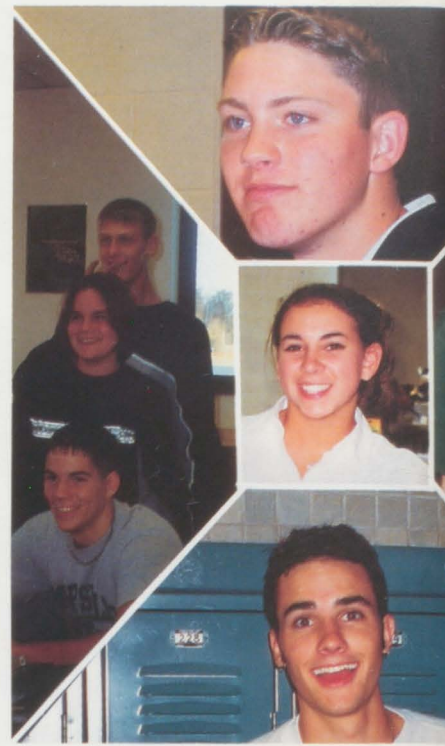

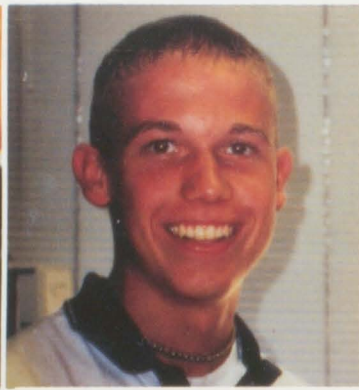

As we enter into a new century and a new millennium we realize that there must be an end before a new beginning. The end of 1999 was an end of an era at MHS.

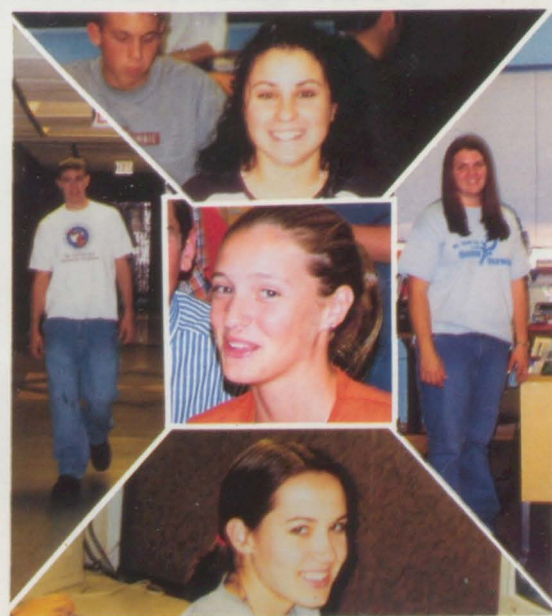

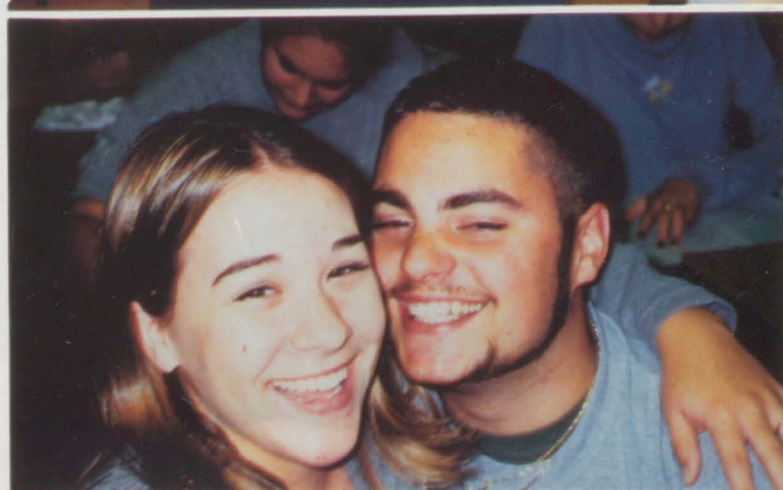

At the north west corner of Viking stadium stands a street sign naming the crossroads MICHIGAN AND COLLARD DRIVE. Just as baseball ceased at Michigan and Trumbull, so did "The Voice of the Vikings" retire-- Neil Collard! For over 30 years, his face has been seen at countless sporting events, while his low, deep, melodic voice carried the Vikings to another victory.

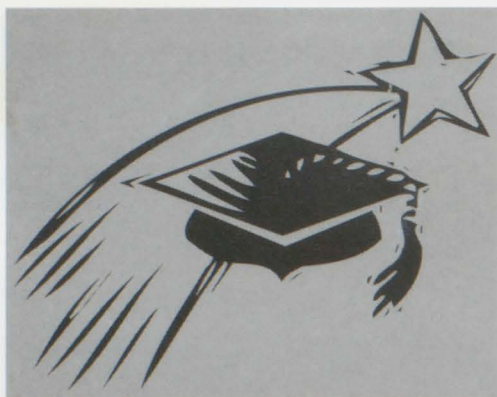

Mr. Collard is a tremendous role model for many people, and has been for all of his 37 years of teaching. He was involved in many business education classes. He also devoted his time after school to coaching JV baseball and cross country. After his retirement, he helped with the organizing of senior activities, including Baccalaureate, Honors Convocation, and Commencement, but he is most known as being "The Voice of the Vikings".

Role models stand for many things in a person's life. They are someone to look to for support, someone who provides help and advice, someone you can trust. Mr. Collard was all of these things. He is known and respected by all. He represents all the positive sides of being a true Marysville Viking.

Thank You, Mr. Collard.

Class Motto

We've worked together
through the years
Exchanged a helping hand,
Moving to a single goal,
Now here we stand.
We've made our mark
throughout our time,
We found out who we are,
Now there is no turning back for we have come so far.
With graduation now at
hand,
We each choose our next goal;
The thing that we will choose to do,
To make our new lives
whole.
But I hope we can remember,
Each memory and each friend,
As we start on this beginning,
And know it's not the end.

VALEDICTORIAN

Sarah Clement

The first Salutatorian at Marysville High School this century is Shannon Roehl. For the past four years of high school she has been supported by her parents Chuck and Evelyn Roehl and her two sisters, Marion and Denise, and her brother, Doug.

Shannon worked very hard all through school to maintain a grade point average of 4.032 on a 4.334 scale.

Shannon was very active in extra-curricular activities. This past year she was on Steering Committee, National Honor Society, and Student Council. As well as being involved in all these activities she was very active in sports. She was a four year member of the high school basketball and softball teams as well as playing for teams outside of the school.

Shannon's favorite class this year was Anatomy and Physiology with Mr. Nichonovich. She has fun in the class and enjoys dealing with a subject that relates to the field that she is interested in. Although she retired last year, Miss Fedraw was her favorite teacher. She was a great teacher and an inspiration to all of her students.

After graduation Shannon plans to major in pre-med at Alma College.

Sarah Clement was awarded the title of Valedictorian for the class of the millennium. She achieved the honor with a grade point average of 4.15 on a 4.334 scale.

Some of her senior activities included being a member of Student Council and the pit orchestra for the musical. She played the trumpet for the marching band and the concert band for all four years of high school and played the violin for the Port Huron Youth Orchestra. Sarah also earned the position of President for the National Honor Society her senior year.

When asked what some of her favorite classes were, Sarah named French and band: French because, "I love Mrs. Lomasney," and Band because, "I just like music!" There were many teachers who made an impact on Sarah's life in high school, some being Mr. Duso, Mr. Wastell, Mrs. Lomasney, and Mrs. Kiefer.

After she graduates Sarah would like to double major in music and health sciences at either the University of Chicago or Ball State University.

Sarah is the daughter of Denise Pointer and Paul Clement and the sister of Jenny and Josh.

Her favorite quote is "Sometimes teachers seem to forget that life is not a True/False test."

Shannon Roehl

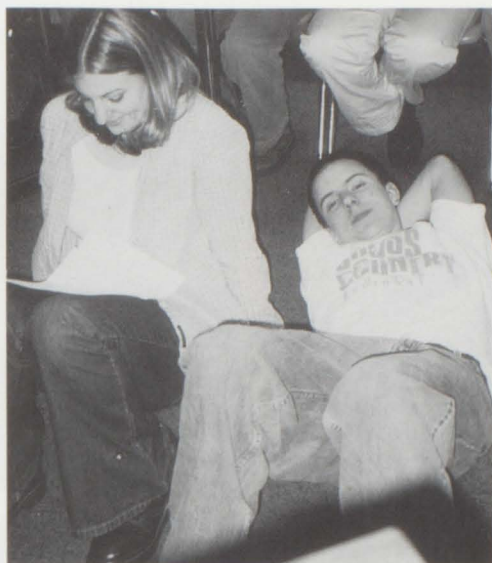

SALUTATORIAN

For the past four years the class of 2000 has worked very hard to raise money to make their senior year the best ever. Well, they succeeded! Josh Guzinski said, "It was so great being involved in school activities. I never expected it to be this much fun!" about his first year on steering committee. Things started out a little slow before Christmas break, but when school resumed, so did the student's activities. Almost every member is involved in some other extra-curricular activity besides this, but nevertheless, everyone found time to help out. Prom brought on a few unexpected complications, but in the end all was well and the evening was one everyone will remember for years to come. Through all of the hard times and definitely through the good the students worked hard and accomplished many things.

Sharon Faley stated, "Being on Steering Committee has helped me make lots of new friends and really get to know people in my class a little better."

Below: "What are you lookin' at?" asks Kelly Harrison.

This year the Junior class had some new responsibilities. Many students and parents pitched in to help with the concession stand. Juniors also had to plan for their very first prom. A lot of hard work from the class officers and steering committee was needed to make the night a success. This was also the first year Juniors had the choice of attending TEC or COOP. However, the most important thing for our class was we were finally considered upperclassmen, and we now have only 1 year left to go. Let's make the best of our Senior year and keep making special memories.

Of all the new and exciting things the New Millennium brought along, many juniors found the most important thing to be having their own lockers. Although a few juniors had their own to brag about last year, everyone had the privilege of their own lockers this year. Look at how these juniors took advantage of their lockers.

Finally! The Class of 2002 has grown up to be able to hold the coveted title of "Sophomore". We all worked hard to achieve this goal, and, in doing so, we were able to reach other goals as well. Even though we only stepped up one rung on the High School "step ladder", that one step made all the difference in our High School career. No longer the "babies" of Marysville High School, we were finally able to be taken seriously. Although there is still work to be done, and yet we're not "all grown up" yet, we know that the rest of our years at MHS will help us along the way. Thanks to our two years at MHS, we have a taste of our future.

Once again, it's time to become serious!
At first, being Sophomores was fun, knowing that we weren't the ones who would get picked on all of the time. But then, as the year went on and the work got harder, we realized that being a Sophomore isn't that we get to pick on somebody, but that the work gets harder and the expectations of ourselves rose. But we all will look forward to our Junior year!

"Driving" is Driving

Above: Obviously James Sheldon gets to school a little too early on Wednesdays, thanks to the "Sophomores Can't Drive" rule!

Above: This is the look Nick gave us when asked about how he felt about not driving to school.

What?!? Sophomores can't drive?!? That's crazy! Well, that's what happened this year. It's the first year that this has happened. Most of the Sophomores can't believe it. They waited so long so that they could drive to school and now they have to wait another year. Some people are saying that it is some sort of conspiracy against the class of 2002, but that is hardly the reason. It is said that the reason that the Sophomores cannot drive is for the simple fact that there is not enough room to hold that many students in the parking lot. Most of the teachers even had to move into the front parking lot so there would be enough room to be able to hold all of the Marysville High School students who drive to school everyday.

Below: It looks like Korren Downs is following James's lead!

Sophomores Crazy!!

Sophomores "Ring" in 2002

Class of 2002

Sophomores found a new way to keep their memories of the 1999-2000 school year alive—class rings. Most of the Class of 2002 decided to buy their class rings to do just that. Some of their “dream rings” may have been a little too expensive for their taste, but that’s what parents are for, right?

Above: Krista Whited thinks, “Hmm..which ring should I make my parents buy?”

Below: Kaylee Rowe has a hard time deciding what kind of ring she wants.

Bottom Middle: Jonathon Linnell and Jennifer Mohni try not to be too excited about the class rings.

Left: “I wonder if there are any cheaper rings in this book.” ponders Kevin Wilkie.

Right: Enter into school property. You didn't pay any.
 Below: Brooke L. and Kelly K. try to get work done but it's impossible.

Below: Awww.....what a cute bunny rabbit Melissa! Thanks for the help, Meghan!

Middle Oval: This is the first and last time you will ever see Adam Smith paying attention in class!
Below: It looks like Holly Heiser is the only one on this page that really knows how to work!!

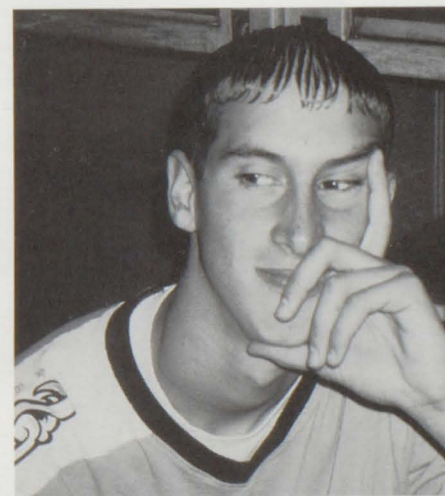

Right: Peekaboo! Don't forget to smile Rachel! Take a few pointers from Kortney.
Below: Nice pearly whites, Darci!

Below: Say hello to the "Tuba Boys", Paul Turrell and Mike Bilina!!

Below: Don't smirk at me, James Sheldon!

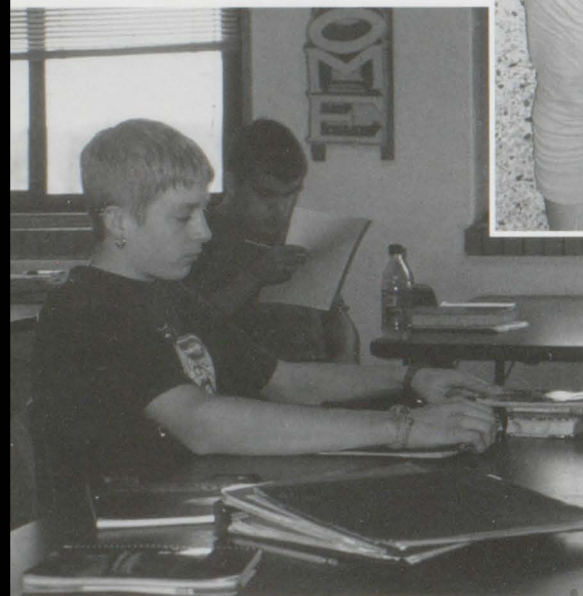

Workin' Hard or Hardly Workin'?

Below: Look for Meghan Ross in a hallway near you!

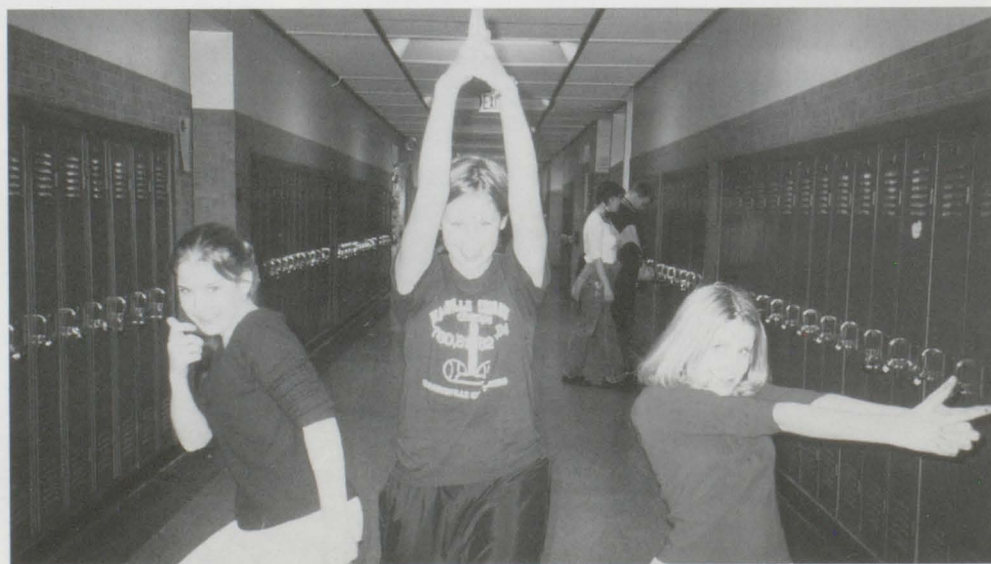

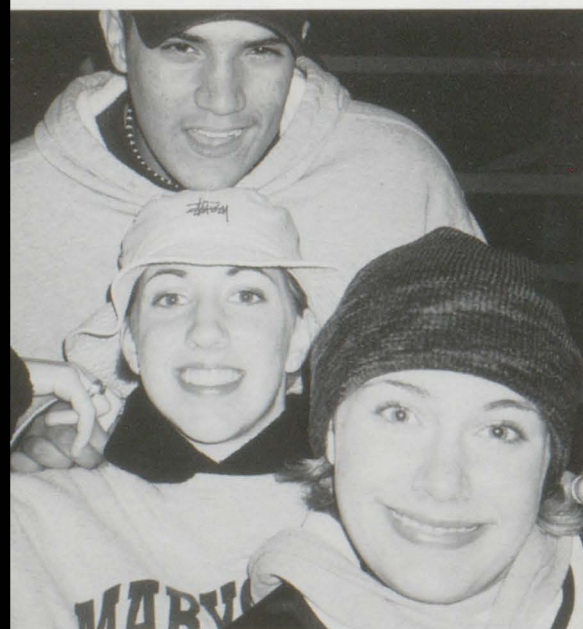

Above: Rachel Vince defies the law of gravity.

Finally! It's time to have fun! Sophomores had the chance this year to show the other classes that they knew how to party. Even though our expectations and our teachers' expectations of us rose, we still had the time to be able to show off what we knew how to do best-have fun! From the beginning of the year (floatbuilding), to the end (summer), the Class of 2002 really showed off their natural talents! Maybe the Sophomores of 1999-2000 need to show the other classes how to really make their mark, not as athletes, or even intellectuals, but people who really know how to get the party started!

Below: Amber B., Jessica M., and Shannon B. are the new and improved "Charlie's Angels."

Sophomores Just Wanna Have Fun!

During all of the tough times that the Class of 2002 has endured, we all were able to smile right through them. Even through all of the not-so-to tough times we smiled anyways, maybe just to confuse others! We all tried to make the best of everything, even though maybe that wasn't the best thing to do at the time. What is good about all of this is that the Class of 2002 knows how to stick together and keep our chins up!!

Below: Brian Wright, Katie Maryon, and Chad Bussey all take time out of Mr. Schmorrow's Art class to smile for us.

Most people would think that there would be some not-so-good feelings between the Sophomores and Freshmen this year. But, according to the way Sophomores and Freshmen are acting toward one another this year, people would actually think they were friends!

Going from 8th grade to 9th grade is a big step. You enter a new dimension of life, or so it seems. When the class of 2003 entered the doors of Marysville High School on August 25, 1999 butterflies filled their stomachs. They now entered this new place so different from what they're used to. Freshman Katie Ryan said, "High School is fun but it's a lot different than middle school."

"I like High School a lot," said Molly Tobicyk. "There's always something going on." Freshmen weren't new to M.H.S. for long. Before you knew it they were joining sport teams, attending after school activities, and going to dances. The upper classmen and freshmen got to know each other and even became friends. The 1999-2000 school year was a great one full of good times with many more to come.

BURN 'EM UP VIKES

Above: Eric Loane was looking awfully hot in his Hot Tamales suit. He was mascoting the 10th grade float, which had the theme of Burn 'Em Up. Right: With a look of determination on her face, nothing can stop Katie Deloy from finishing the float.

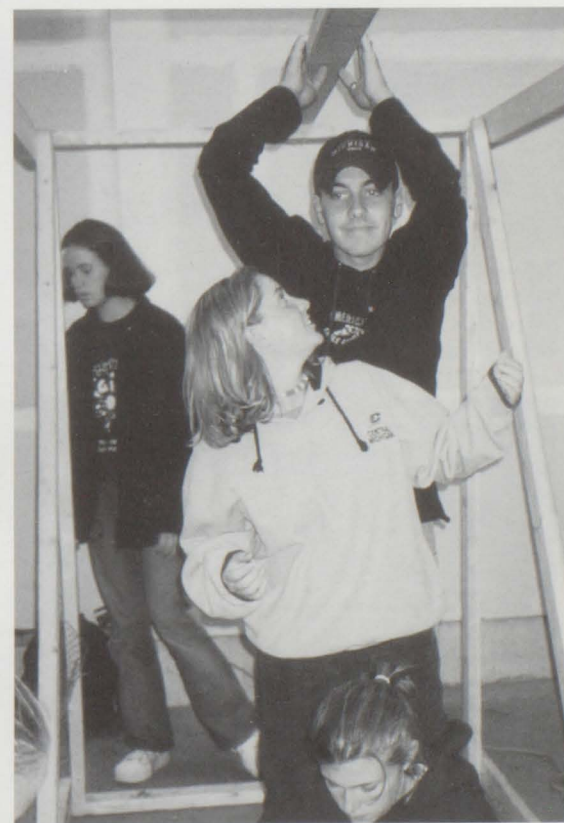

The sophomores float moved up a notch to earn a 2nd place. Last year they came in 3rd place, losing to both the seniors and the juniors. They hope to get a 1st place next year. Now that they know how much time and effort it takes to build a float, they are sure that they will do better in the years to come.

Above: The sophomore class all agrees on one thing. The more people you have to help, the faster it gets done.

Below: While Krista Whited is hard at work, Brian Murray and Katie Guyette find a little time to goof around in the hot tamales box.

Bottom Right: John MacDonald doesn't look too happy to see us. He must be hard at work.

The juniors' hard work finally paid off. They didn't get last place! They earned 3rd place.

Above: The juniors had the theme of 'Chew 'Em UP and Spit 'Em Out. A bubblegem machine was their way of representing their float. Even though they did not get first place, they still have another year to redeem themselves.

Above: "Awww, isn't he cute!!" By the look on his face, he must be up to something.

Right: The seniors' float had the theme of Eat 'Em Up.

Even though their float fell apart halfway through the parade, they still pulled off a first place. They all know that winning isn't everything, but it is a great feeling to say that your float won when you were a senior.

Left: Aubrey Charbeneau is getting a little rest after a long day of work on the float. She says, "Why stand when you can lie down?"

Below: Seniors Josh Sinnot and Ryan Bell grab a bag of M & M's and watch as others finish their float. "Wow guys, are you going to eat all of them yourselves?"

Joel Glombowski was our freshman representative. His hobbies include basketball and free style biking. He was "amazed and excited" to be chosen. In the future, he hopes to become a college basketball player.

The King's Court

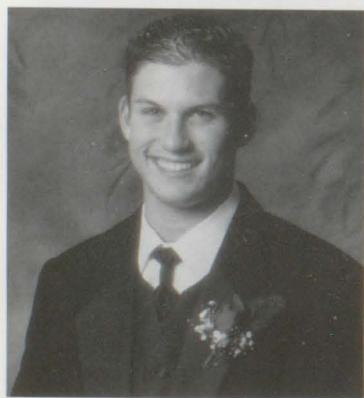

Bob Lenz represented our sophomore class. He plays the guitar in a band, and also plays violin and percussion. He was "happy" to be chosen for court. In the future, Bob plans on continuing his music career.

Chad VanNatter was one of our senior class representatives. He plays golf and hockey. His future plans include attending Michigan State or U of M and becoming an accountant or stock broker. He was "very surprised and honored" to be on court.

Jim Thrower was a senior class representative this year. He was "pleasantly surprised" to be nominated for court this year. He enjoys football, bowling, and fishing. In the future, he plans to go to a four year University, maybe Grand Valley, for a pre-law degree.

Christian Hillmann, a junior, was a foreign exchange student this year. He loves music and plays the guitar and trumpet. He was "happy and excited" to be on court. His future plans include returning to Germany to take his final exam.

Fred Hill was the junior class representative. He was "Extremely surprised and honored to be chosen." He enjoys football and baseball. Fred plans to be a conservation officer in the future.

Stephanie Makowski was the freshman class representative. She enjoys tennis and volleyball. She plans to just enjoy her high school years. She was "extremely excited and honored" to be chosen for homecoming court.

The Queen's Court

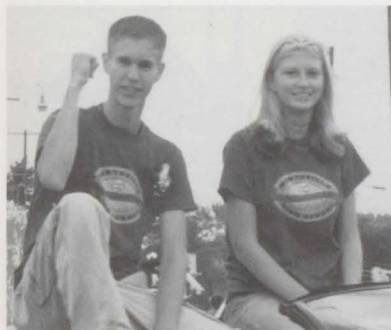

Katie Woodruff was our sophomore representative. Her hobbies include reading poems and stories and playing piano. She was "absolutely thrilled" to be on court. In the future, she plans on going into advertisement.

Jennifer Hadden represented our senior class. She was "surprised and extremely honored" to be chosen. She enjoys water-skiing, volleyball, and basketball. Her plans include attending Mississippi State.

Kristin English was one of the senior class representatives. Her hobbies include writing and shopping. She "felt like she was living someone else's life" when she found out she was chosen. In the future, she plans on attending college.

Anna Leppin was a foreign exchange student from Germany. She enjoys playing violin, piano, the hunting horn and the french horn. She was "very excited" to be on court. Her future plans include graduating in Germany.

Hitomi Sato was a foreign exchange student this year. She was "glad and excited" to be on homecoming court. She enjoys taking trips and learning other languages. In the future she hopes to attend college in Japan.

Introducing . . . Queen Sara & King Scott

Sara Bower was this year's homecoming queen. She was escorted by her parents Tom and Heather Bower. Sara said, "My senior year is going great, but this just tops it off." She thanks her classmates for choosing her to represent their class. When she heard her name announced she was very excited. She is sure that she will never forget this day for the rest of her life.

Scott Goddard was this year's homecoming king. He was escorted by his parents Don and Jeanie Goddard. When asked what his favorite part of the evening, his response was, "The whole evening was great. I will never forget it." He thanks his fellow classmates for making this homecoming his best ever. He was surprised and honored that his class had chosen him.

TREND SPOT

The new Millennium has brought some new trends to Marysville High School: from tattoos to piercings, to wild hair do's and stylish rims on cars. Pagers and cell phones are also popular as the world excels in technology. All the students at M.H.S. are trying many different ways to express themselves. These are just a few examples.

Damn Yankees

Jim Davis and Justin Barber ignore their wives. To them, there is nothing more important than baseball.

The all-star cast of DAMN YANKEES gives a final display of talent.

The cast includes: Jim Davis, Laura Lane, Doug Haney, Elizabeth Matuszewski, Matthew Tiza, Paul Turrell, Mike Bilina, Jamie Randolph, Amy Andrews, Brooke Barnum, David Doan, Scott Goddard, Justin Barber, D.J. Charron, Graig Rogers, Bob Lenz, Rachel Huysentruyt, Kristen Baker, Ronald Duso, Christie Arendt, Katherine Makowski, Erin Davis, Kaylee Rowe, Samantha Dudash, Sara Vineyard, Kristi La Vere, Jessica Venia, Crystal Meacham, Peggy DeVeney, Devon Spencer, Kim Van Tiem, Karen Howard, Andrea Maurey, Emily Matuszewski, Renee Marchione, Amy Lenz, Andrea Loane, Andrea Bernard, Lisa Schinkai, Debbie Bock, Jenelle Lottner, Nicole Curley, Katherine Kwiatkowski, Sarah Clement, Brian Schunk, Rob Doan, Kellie Madis, and Ross Williams.

Based on the Douglass Wallopp's novel The Year The Yankees Lost The Pennant, Marysville High School proudly presents Damn Yankees. The story takes place in the 1950's in Washington D.C. Joe (Jim Davis), a faithful fan of the sorry Washington Senators baseball team, says he would sell his soul to the devil to see his team beat the New York Yankees. Soon, the devil (Doug Haney) shows up to grant him his wish sending the new and improved Joe Hardy to play for the Senators. Joe discovers that the love of the wife he left behind is more important than seeing the Senators win the pennant. In the end, good overcomes evil by curtain's fall.

"Deadly Image"

"Deadly Image" synopsis-

When powerful billionaire industrialist, Wentworth Jefferson, phones private investigator, Joey Reynolds, he's in for a shock: Joey is not, as he assumed, a man, but a female detective. Joey, short for Jo Ellen, is a smart, attractive, and self-assured young woman who is good at her work, and proud of it too. Jefferson invites her to a party at his mansion where she meets, and secretly photographs, the people in Wentworth's life whom he suspects might wish to see him dead.

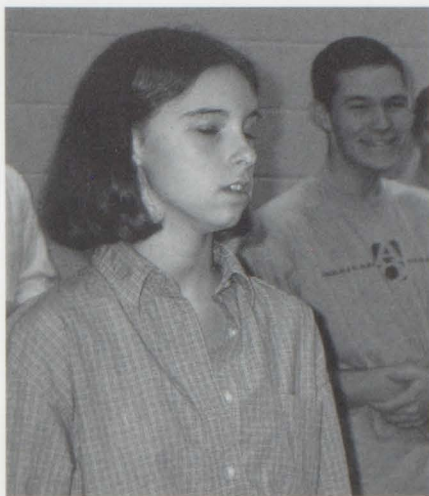

The suspects who attend this party are: his flighty wife, Mamie; her children, playboy Sam Kane and sculptress daughter, Selena; his bitter ex-wife, Julia Jefferson; society columnist, Felica Phillips, whom he once jilted; Debra Mason, his spinster-ish personal assistant; and a senior executive in his firm, Paul Carter, and his genteel Southern wife, Mary Jane. Also present are a trio of servants who are not fond of their employer.

Before the evening is over, one of those present kills Jefferson. But which one? Joey along with detective Al Reynolds, her ex-husband, use the photos to solve who is the murderer.

Way to Go!

The choir was split this year, again, into two separate groups.

The women's and mixed choir did an excellent job at their first concert. They showed off their talents again at the Christmas concert and many people sang beautiful solos.

This took much practice and hard work to put these concerts together and everyone who contributed deserves much recognition.

RACK 'EM UP, SPECTRUM!

Spectrum traded in their usual uniforms for cowgirl outfits this year, the theme was country-western. With junior Erin Davis leading the squad, this season turned out to be one of their most rewarding. Erin stated "It's definatly a big deal to be captain as a junior." Laurie Maertens was the only new addition to the team this year, "Try-outs were really easy...I was the only one there." Despite the pressures of seven a.m.s and a two hour sectional every week, all the girls worked really hard, and it shows! Congratulations on an excellent year!

Easy Mac'n Through The Season

Can you run fast? Are you determined? Do hurdles scare you? If you answered yes, yes, no, then you have the potential to be a MV track star! Track is more difficult than it looks. There is much practice and determination needed to be a girls' track member. They worked hard at practice to reach their goals. The 1999 girls' track team had a successful season. They tied for second place in their league along with L'Anse Creuse North and Fraser. You go girls!

Presenting...

the 1999 Blue M.A.C. League Champions! These fine young men did an outstanding job in the Track & Field department. Putting forth their best effort in every event helped these Vikings come out on top! Whether it was long distance, high jump, hurdles, or sprints this team gave it their all.

Congratulations again to these M.A.C. champions!

There's no playing around in the sand for the Vikings. When they say jump, it's just a matter of--how far?

J. V. softball was at its best with the 1998 team. Working together to succeed was their attitude, and although it didn't always show in the scores, it was evident in their comraderie. A coach's greatest achievement is to have a group that gets along. Way to go girls!

This spring the freshmen girls' softball team was very enthusiastic to hit in their 1999 season. The girls came ready to play for every game. The closeness they shared helped them complete a winning season. Coach Radske not only taught them sports skills but life skills they can use in their future.

The Varsity Baseball team was expecting to have a winning season. They aquired some new talent this year from some of the juniors who played for the first time and also some veterans that stepped up their play on the field. Over the course of the season the team developed excellent team chemistry and teamwork on and off the field.

Based on their successes in 1998, the 1999 Girls' Soccer team moved up two divisions causing them a bit of trouble. Their record was 4-11-1(overall) and 3-8 (league). The girls had trouble with opponents such as; Port Huron Northern, Romeo, and Lakeview. They did, on the other hand, have no problem whooping Roseville or Algonac's tails.

SOCCER

The boys' tennis team struggled through the 1999 season. The competition in the Mac Gold Division was tough. There are high expectations for next year's team. The young team will have gained experience. They can take this year's loss of success and hopefully turn it around into many years of successful competition.

Small, but competitive was this years equestrian team. The team included only four members. They were Laura Kendrick, Ashley Soule, Michelle Sazehn, and Sara Smith. Laura rode saddleseat. Sara and Ashley enjoyed saddling up in Western style. Along with western, Michelle rode huntseat. This year was all about having fun and enjoying the season. The team would travel to campgrounds to compete. The leader this year was Vanessa Kerr. Next year Michelle will enjoy her father, Mr. Sazehn, being the new coach.

The 2000 Marysville Hockey Team is a combination of both newcomers and veterans. They are a competitive team that strives to win. Their fast and aggressive style of play has brought them among the top rankings in the state. For the first time in Marysville history, this year's team beat rival Port Huron Northern, 5-3. Josh Guzinski, one of the team's captains, said, "This year's team has a lot of talent and they are all hoping to go as far as possible." Adam McMann is another leader of the team as a co-captain. The assistant captains are Aaron Rolls and Mike Haligowski. The team's head coach is Eric Raymo and the assistant coaches are Mark Pettie and "Floody". This year's team goal is to play on March 11 in the state finals.

The 1999-2000 Wrestling team swept through the Millennium with a group of young new wrestlers. This year's team had many new faces who were led by team captains Jeff Frazer and Ben Pokrifka. Senior Jeff Frazer says, "We have a very young team with a lot of talent who will be very good in the next few years." This year, the Vikings are being represented by Jeff Frazer, Ben Pokrifka, and Mike McCormick. Frazer finished in 3rd in states last year and feels he has a very good chance of winning them this year.

Leading us into the new Millennium

Mr. James Goldsworthy

Mr. William Farnsworth

Mr. James Venia

Above: How you doin'? Asks Mr. Goldsworthy

Above: Now that Mr. Farnsworth has taken care of all the trouble makers in our school he can take his well deserved break and twiddle his thumbs.

This year was a year of change in Marysville High School. The Administration was no exception to this change as we had the promotion of former principal Tom Hadden. He was promoted to Assistant Superintendent. We were fortunate enough to have Mr. Goldsworthy come and sub in his place and take over the role of principal for the first semester. We are in great debt to him and thank him very much for his help. For the second semester Mr. Goldsworthy left, and Assistant Principal William Farnsworth took over the principal spot and former Assistant Athletic Director Tom Valko filled in for Mr. Farnsworth's position as Assistant Principal. We thank them for all their time and effort in making sure that our school still ran smoothly through these confusing times.

This year was also a confusing one for the staff. There were many new teachers starting their careers at Marysville this year. Although it was confusing at times we really appreciate the new teachers and the whole staff for teaching us and making sure that we are prepared to go out into the world and be successful. We the students thank them very much for their time and compassion.

Mr. Michael Patterson

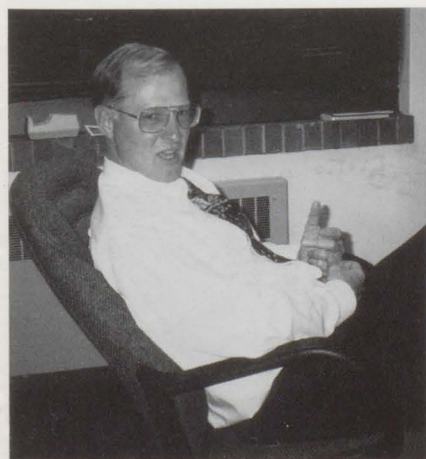

Mr. Todd Robinson

Sergeant Tom Cowhy

This year's counselors were Mr. Patterson and Mr. Robinson. This was the first year for Mr. Robinson. He started his first year as counselor at MHS taking the place of Mrs. Blackney who retired last year. Mr. Robinson was a former math teacher here at MHS and also coaches football and baseball. He is also a former student at MHS. He did many things in his first year as counselor here. He along with Mr. Patterson were in charge of running the MEAP testing, providing students the choice of changing of classes and making the best possible decision or choice for the student. On top of all this our counselors still found time to help each and every student with the little things in life that help even the most miserable day just a little brighter. We thank them for all their help and appreciate the time they have put in to helping our school be a better place.

Above: Through all the hectic things Mr. Cowhy goes through in a day he still finds time to give the camera a little smile.

Working Hard to Keep Our School Running

Above: "Hello, Mrs. Morenko? It's me, Mrs. Schmorow. Are you busy in the athletic office?"

Above: Mrs. Lindke tries not to laugh as we sneak in for a pic.

Above: Mrs. Morenko replies, "Yes, I'm hard at work I'll have to call you back later."

Our secretaries work very hard every day to keep our school running. They take care of so many things, from keeping track of students coming and going, tardies and absences, to make appointments and helping other staff members. Our secretaries keep everything in order for staff and studnets. Thank you so much to all of our secretaries!!!!

Below: Mrs. Giamprtone makes a face at her computer. The server must be down again!

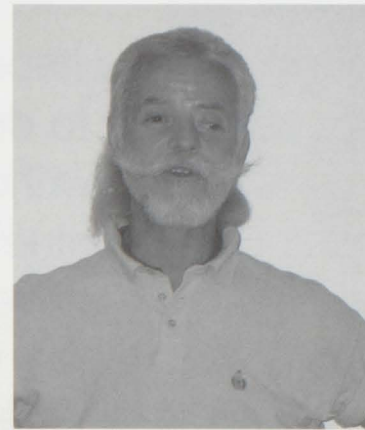

Above: Suprise! Nurse Bladow is making an inportant phone call.

Above: Our kitchen staff is preparing another satisfying meal for our students.

Thanks so much to all of our kitchen staff, custodians and bus drivers! They work so hard for all of our students by giving us rides to our games, meals for lunch and clean classrooms. Without them our year would not be complete!

Below: Marysville bus drivers are anxiously waiting to hit their routes for the morning.

Kristin Mary English~

We look at you and wonder where the time has gone. You've grown into a beautiful young woman; you are an essential part of our lives. Our pride in you is unsurpassed and the happiness you bring to us is unending. You are a precious gift that keeps on giving and you have fulfilled our lives in unique and wonderful ways. May your graduation bring deep happiness to you. May you have peace, love, faith, a sense of humor, and an optimistic attitude. May you appreciate and notice all your blessings and find joy in all the wonderful little things life offers. We wish we could give you everything you could ever want and guarantee you health, safety and joy. But all that we can promise you is our love~unconditional, complete, and forever. Follow your dreams.

 succeeded. Now it's time to reach for the stars and conquer.
 We are so proud of you.

Love,
 Mom and Dad

Jill Sturdevant and Stephanie Vantroostenberghe make their list and check it twice to make sure they are including all students in their class.

Smiling Keith Shannon knows how much effort it takes to create a year-book.

Above: Raylene Westbrook checks to see if Amanda Hayman has not removed any yearbook materials from the classroom!

Below: "My social life is on 'hold' until I meet my deadlines," remarks Amber Bechtel.

On special assignment are Kasey Knuth and Aubrey Charbeneau. They toured Marysville to show "Our Town" from a student's point of view.

The 99/00 Yearbook staff members include: Amber Bechtel, Sarah Biondo, Sara Bower, Tara Britz, Aubrey Charbeneau, Kristen English, Sharon Faley, Kevin Finnie, Tiffani Goniwicha, Josh Guzinski, Jennifer Hadden, Amanda Hayman, Corinne Herlihy, Lourean Kakos, Krystal Kenaya, Kasey Knuth, Danny Levey, Jessica Markel, Andrea Maurey, Aaron Rolls, Darci Ross, Courtney Russell, Keith Shannon, Jill Sturdevant, Chad VanNatter, Stephanie Vantroostenberghe, Raylene Westbrook, Jessica Wienert.

Below: Employers expect their employees to be punctual-just ask Sarah and Josh!

Above: Courtney Russell and Jessica Wienert will make sure the yearbook class carries on without me! Below: Aaron, however, looks confused that he won't have his page finished on time.

Below: Jennifer Hadden goes cross-eyed after counting picas on her DPS.

Stress is the nervousness that makes one want to throw one's hands in the air and let someone else worry about it. The yearbook staff knows that feeling because their work haunts them until it is done. They also know that they can't let others take over because the entire student body relies on them to publish the yearbook. Changes are made frequently and they must adapt. No one bails out! Despite some late deadlines and missing rolls of film, this TEAM managed to pull off another fine, historic publication, one to be proud of throughout the new millennium! Thank you to all.

*To laugh often and much,
to win the respect of intelligent people,
and the affection of children,
to earn the appreciation of honest critics,
and endure the betrayal of false friends,
to appreciate beauty,
to find the best in others,
to leave the world a bit better,
whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch,
or a redeemed social condition;
to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.*

THIS is to have succeeded.
